Death Valley National Park is a contrast of harsh reality, natural beauty and extreme challenges. Dry lake beds, steep canyons and geologic upheaval provide the subject. Early morning and late afternoon sun provide the light of creativity. The subtle colors of "Golden Canyon" and dynamic textures of "The Dunes" provide a challenge for all photographers.

Proposed shooting locations.

Golden Canyon
Stovepipe Wells Dunes, Scotty's Castle
Badwater, the Devil's Golf Course
Zabriskie Point

- The Adventure begins with lunch at the Furnace Creek Ranch and concludes after breakfast on the final day.
- Cost of the Adventure is $550 per photographer or $750 per couple. Price includes instruction and 3 meals. Adventure limited to eighteen photographers.
- Lodging, transportation, and other meals are not included.
- Paid reservations accepted on a first-come-first-served basis.
- The Adventure Headquarters will be the Furnace Creek Ranch. We have reserved the best rooms at the Ranch (~$129 per night). Call 760-786-2345 to make your room reservation. Mention that you are on the Paul's Photo Adventure for the "Group Rate."
